

KLM Amsterdam to Buenos Aires

From October KLM will reinstate its Amsterdam Buenos Aires route for the first time in 10 years. The service will operate three times a week during the winter and four times a week from March 2012.

New route to Haneda...& other news!

British Airways has started a new route between Heathrow and Tokyo Haneda Airport. The 4 class service will run 5 times a week. British Airways has also announced they will cease the route to Sharm el Shiekh from 02nd May 2011. BA will also start a new service to Marrakech, San Diego and Puerto Rico and increase it's schedule to Dar es Salaam, Antigua, Barbados and St. Lucia.

Specials to Africa.....

Book Early for travel from 21 June to 31 August for lowest fares to Cotonou, Ougadougou, Lome and Accra. Tickets must be booked by 12 March 2011 and there is a minimum stay of 6 days. Fares start from £295.00 plus tax with Bussels Airlines via Brussels.

Best Western has 5 new hotels open so far this year bringing their total number to 275 including the first apartment hotel - the Best Western Maitrise Suites. This London hotel has 17 individually designed apartments, complete with kitchen, flatscreen TV, home cinema system, wifi and free car parking. The hotel is right next to West Ealing Station making it just a ten-minute trip to Heathrow or Paddington station and central London. Corporate Rates available through ACE Travel Management.

Foreign and Commonwealth
Office

The Foreign Office is encouraging all British Nationals to register with their free service LOCATE. The details you provide when you register will help embassy and crisis staff contact you and give you better assistance in an emergency such as a natural or man-made disaster or civil disturbance.

<https://www.locate.fco.gov.uk/locateportal/>

UK Train Travel

Save time and money booking your trains through the ACE Travel Evolvi Online Booking Tool. All transactions are processed through your account in the usual way and you get free CO2 reporting!