

Issue 94 17th March 2011

LATEST NEWS

Latest Travel Advice

The Foreign Office is currently advising against all but essential travel to Japan in light of the recent earthquake and the resulting severe disruption. As of today they are also advising against ALL travel to Bahrain. The Foreign Office strongly encourages all British nationals travelling and living abroad to register with them on LOCATE, even for short trips. You can find the link from our website www.acetravel.co.uk

Etihad Early Summer Offers

Valid for sale till 31 March 2011 and valid for travel between 01 May – 10 Jul 2011, Etihad are offering early Summer discounted fares to various destinations. For example, fares from London to Bangkok start from £199.00 (excluding tax and fees).

There is a minimum stay of 3 days and maximum stay 6 months and all travel must be completed by 11 January 2012

Business Class customers are entitled to complimentary Chauffeur Drive when you book an eligible Business Class fare. A chauffeur will collect you and drive you in

From 27 March KLM Royal Dutch Airlines will have a new European Business Class. The new class will provide enhanced comfort, one-and-half-times more space, improved catering and priority service on departure and arrival.

Meet and greet parking is the most convenient way to park your car at an airport. Simply drive to the departure area outside the terminal and have your car collected and parked for you.

This removes the worry of having to park your car yourself - finding a space in a huge airport car park can be difficult. There is no need to catch an airport transfer bus - your car is collected and delivered as near to the terminal forecourt as possible.

comfort and style, directly to the airport. Once at your destination, bmi chauffeur will greet you in the airport arrivals area and take you to your chosen location. This is eligible on certain routes.

Engineering works on the French High Speed Line -
March and April

Due to engineering works on the French High Speed line, there will be slight amendments to the departure times of Eurostar services from Paris to London during March and April. As a consequence, Eurostar services on the Paris to London route will depart between 6 and 12 minutes earlier than advertised.